SEEMOD

[South and East of England MODel Theory Network]

5/6:JULY:2016

Mathematical Institute

OXFORD

Organisers=$\{$J. Kirby, J. Koenigsmann, and J. Pila$\}$

Invited speakers=$\{$M. Bays, E. Bouscaren$\}$

Other talks to be scheduled. Talks by PhD students/postdocs encouraged. The meeting will begin around 9:30am on July 5 and close by 12:00 on July 6. Please email pila@maths.ox.ac.uk if you would like to attend or speak.

Limited travel funding is available primarily for PhD students. If you are interested in receiving some travel support please email Jonathan.Kirby@uea.ac.uk.

Participants should arrange their own accommodation. Some Colleges offer B and B accommodation at a more affordable rate than hotels: google "university rooms oxford". The Cotswold Lodge Hotel, nearby, has a special rate for the Mathematical Institute; please mention this when booking, and confirm you will pay for yourself.

The meeting is in conjunction with an event on 6 July 2016 in honour of $\{$Roger Heath-Brown, Nigel Hitchin, and Boris Zilber$\}$ on the occasion of their retirement. SEEMOD participants are warmly invited to stay on and attend this event in the afternoon of 6 July; further details to be announced.
