The University of Warwick received its Royal Charter of Incorporation in 1965 and is a registered provider of higher education in the United Kingdom with recognised degree-awarding powers. For further information please see the UK Government website: <http://www.dcsf.gov.uk/recognisedukdegrees>.

Award certificates are normally provided to degree-level students at their graduation ceremony, however, students can opt to defer their graduation for up to 12 months or to graduate in absentia. Undergraduate students normally attend a ceremony in July and postgraduate students normally attend a ceremony in January. Students receiving awards at sub-degree level are not eligible to attend a graduation ceremony. Along with students graduating in absentia, these students will normally receive their certificate via the post within two months of the date of conferral.

Yours faithfully
